*Individual & Group Solutions
For a Post-Pandemic World*

*Created for Healing, Mediation and Good.
Restoring local economies through reducing their abuse cycles.*

INTRODUCTION

This Document is brought to you by the public trust known as: LIVE AUTHENTICALLY

Contained inside are a series of spotlight pages. This style seemed best for connecting and conceptualizing the societal points being highlighted. Any ballyhoo found within is an attempt at creativity while applying repetitive answers. Answers for economics but more importantly for reducing the abuse cycle which still resides within society.

With great consideration and testing of the collective thought patterns in our society. We have now discovered not only socio-economic links, but solutions to many of our local issues. This document is offered for the observer's senses to feast upon. Additionally, we hope it serves as a source of insight, catalyzing what is known as a reveal. But for individuals in a group rather than for groups of individuals (aka the unaware). We work to reveal the multifaceted and yet singularly rooted societal issue, which all generations and peoples face.

This presentation is designed in such a way as to give insight within the flexibilities of mind itself. Which we reason can be a benefit for any individual observer. Even if they themselves leave with no real structural understanding of the points repeatedly alluded towards.

We understand some who observe this may become frustrated or disillusioned at first. As abstraction and lucidity are not typical styles of documents produced in part for institutional appeal. Thus patience and reflection are recommended to the observer. The abstraction contained within is simply a tool. Utilized at this time, as a means to convey the increase in boundary disillusion which, is taking place momentarily.

For those who seek further than the average observer... We sense they will find this intelligence and the manner in which it is communicated useful to their own day to day situations.

Our art is in restoring local economies.

This is an original presentation about how nothing is new under the sun.
This is a document supporting the need for a restoration in local public trust.
This is a presentation for all humans, but especially you, dear Albertan.

Vagueness

This document connects points which are commonly held as too broad for relative insight.

Knowledge of intuitive math, sociology and the practicality for actuarial science, have shown time and again that, human behaviour is massively predictable. Especially in groups.

When a diversity of understanding in terms of currency and economics is prevalent within a society. We must be vague upon introducing solutions for issues rooted in denial.

The Right Behaviours.

This is what individuals and organizations are looking for in order to achieve what they need.

Understanding the intangibles behind our actions. At a level that goes behind our identities and personas will provide the leg up needed for the transition from the Information Age to the Experience Age.

How does a good city work? Honestly.

How does a good city feel?

A discussion of necessity. In the EXPERIENCE AGE.

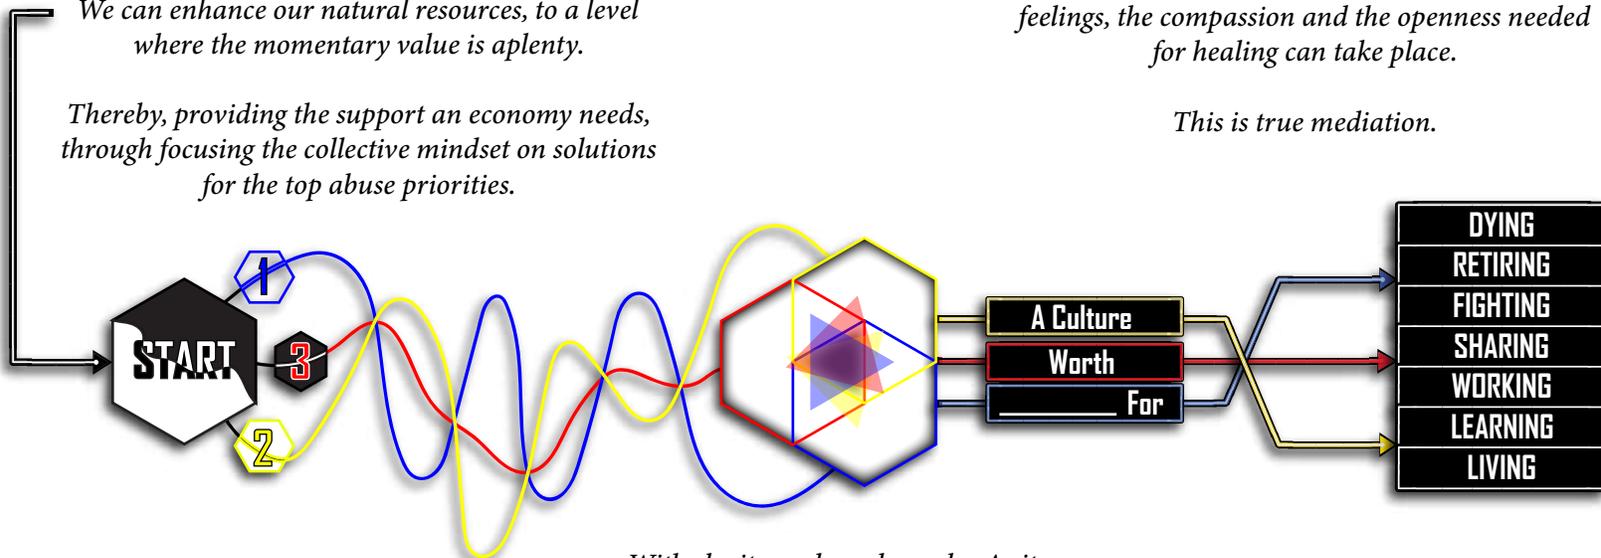

By removing even profit abuse, utilizing local resources and upgrading from consumerism.

We can enhance our natural resources, to a level where the momentary value is aplenty.

Thereby, providing the support an economy needs, through focusing the collective mindset on solutions for the top abuse priorities.

By looking at the issue wholly and abstractly. A natural neuropathology can be formed. So that the feelings, the compassion and the openness needed for healing can take place.

This is true mediation.

With clarity and good people. A city will put aside its different isms, in order to focus on the root of issues.

What is a bad person? Except, a good person's responsibility.

In a CRYING world we believe that "With great power comes great responsibility."

In a good culture, great responsibility comes long before any power. This is known as cultivating true respect.

The society we live in has a mental problem, of disconnection. How can we tell?

Good People

Good People, help all people become good people.
Including themselves.

Child Abuse, Profit & Trafficking Avenues.

We know this happens. Yet it seems that whenever descriptive language is used to expose these issues or interject more terms for clarity...
A large amount of neutral people will be triggered into looking away, before any solutions can be provided.

This is not about blame. There are logical, neurological and many intolerable reasons for why this happens.
However, it is about solving societal issues. Which means cutting through predictable reactions, in route to new solutions rather than the popular expressions masked as the "simple" answer; commonly offered for these issues.

Why are all the characters in this document coloured as aqua, teal, turquoise or similar shade?

Identify the character, rather than characterizing identities. As unnatural as these colours may seem, we feel a sense of appropriateness. It provides a conversation outline towards removing some of the social-isms which are currently, stagnating our societal narratives. For most of this document, we dance pensively, in between the lines of socio-economics, tapping repeatedly on the social concepts of private sector responsibilities and the need for a complete view of who the individual is.

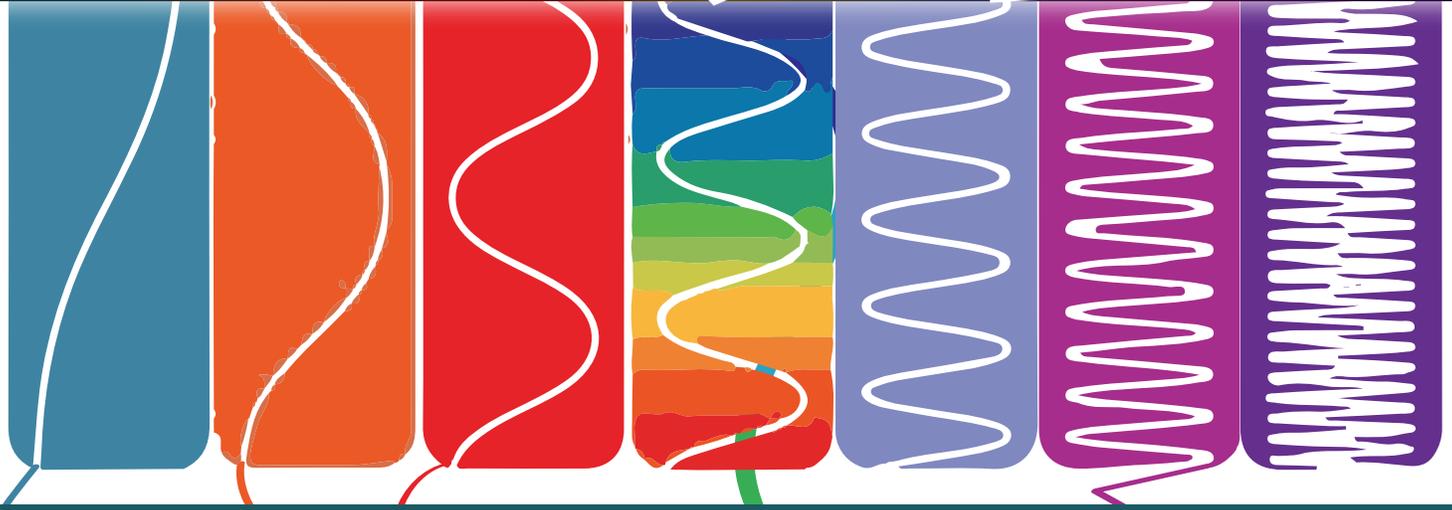

And yes, we mean you dear observer.

As we provide spotlights of various solutions for society, encrypted though they may be. We prompt the reader to keep this section in mind as our trust is consciously aware and working on this problem. While much of what we discuss may seem to be unrelated to the problem; it is not. To provide a solution for such large systemic issues, platforms must be raised in multiple areas and strategies discussed frequently. The difference being that, we do so openly and welcome inquiry to what we are about.

The more a society is focused on protecting children and eliminating abusive practices upon the vulnerable, within not only its proximities, but also economies, and eventually psyches. The less debt and doubt, can grow. Leaving room for healing to take place. Once local business can again sense the local part of their organizations, they will re-design, as like a force of nature. It will happen in order to help us remove the issues, distorting a reality shared by neighbours.

We ask for your support in this endeavour.

The ElectroMagnetic Spectrum

Waves are moving all around us in many more ways than what our 5 senses readily perceive.

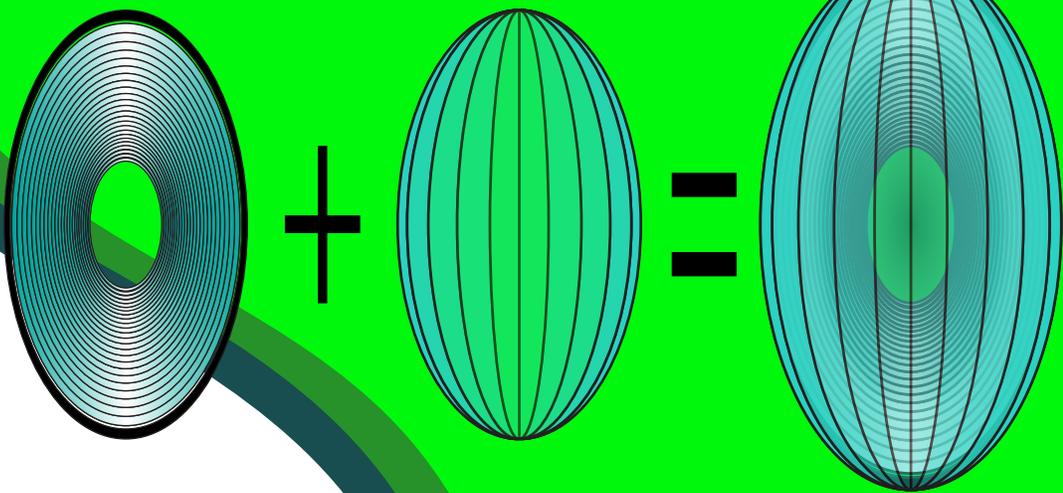

Science is observing what master-marketers have utilized, often by niche-discoveries, since at least the beginning of the Atomic Age.

Society, business, individuals and so on. Move from the Information Age to the Experience Age!

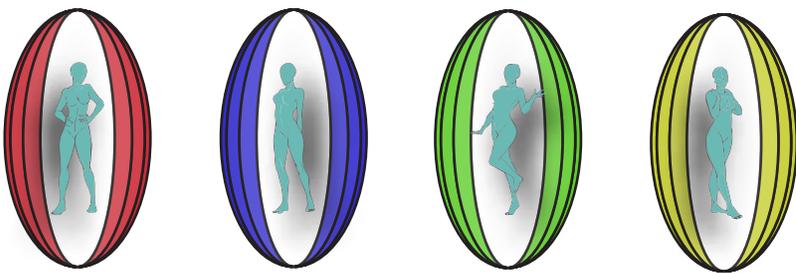

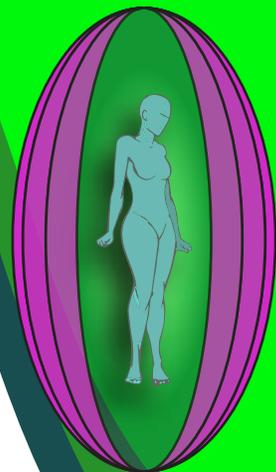

Filtered into Brain Waves!

How would a 6th sense be perceived?

Electromagnetic Jackets - Colloquially known as Aura's
These are unique impressions within the Electro-Magnetic Spectrum.

Everyone has one or many depending on your perspective of the magnetic layers. Every conception of how it works, is currently subjective to each individual's ability to gauge these mental-emotive senses and their effects on the physical world.

They are multi-layered and multi-coloured
Also, like the spectrum itself, they are beyond normal visual perception.

Each electromagnetic jacket is ever changing just like our physical bodies.
There are maintenance requirements just like with bodies.
As well as habits, desires, vices, etc.

The Cognitive Arts

Utilize Frequency • Reveal Your Path • Experience Age

Frequency Waves

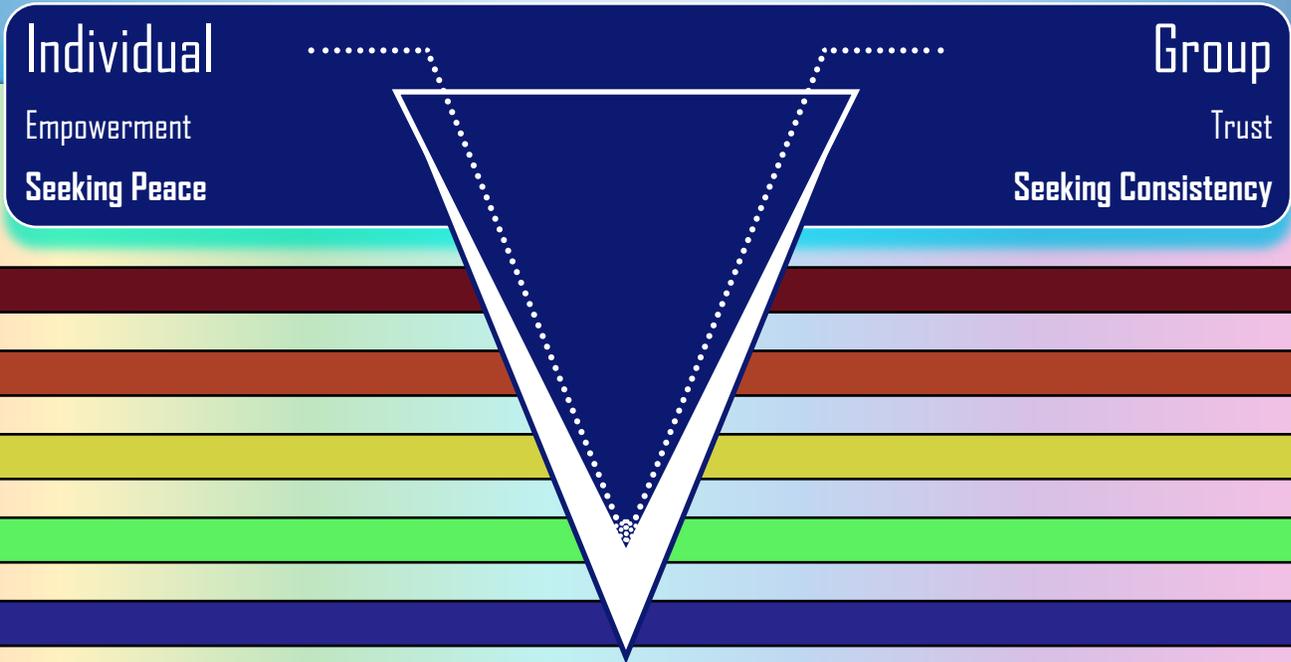

Everything our senses come into contact with, results in brain frequencies. These break into chemicals and either assist or harm our cognitive functions. Which can lead to a whole process of emotions, feelings, expressions, actions and more.

It is clear that science still has more to learn about our interdependent relationship with the Electromagnetic Field. Can desire or intent be used as tools for operating on our processes and communication. to effect the outcome of our reality?

What does that even mean though.? For an individual or for the personal and professional groups that a person may belong to. How can this help myself, my family or my business?

Knowing the history of advertising and propaganda. Creating an awareness for the operations and functions of marketing. Knowing how consumerism labels affect us. These things and more are tools, ready to be utilized by both individuals and groups.

People, their families and the societal organs or institutions which we all rely on will benefit from this knowledge as we transition from the Information Age through to the Experience Age.

For the individual, an awareness of resonance, emanation, dynamic vibration and other observations of nature; will lead to new applications for the skills which they cultivated during the information age.

As with waking up, these frequencies are best for the beginning of plans, stratagems, goal-setting, etc. They each have a doorway to realms of subconscious thought. Administrative, frequencies that often work with human auto-function capabilities. The Conscious energy for individuals and business to utilize is found in their explorative abilities.

Controlled or Unthinking State
 Difficult to observe. Can be reached through hypnosis.
 Not a regular waking state. Less than one cycle per second.

Deep Sleep ■ Collective Unconscious ■ Healing
 The gateway to empathy among humans.
 For groups this is akin to the feeling of receiving unexpected support.

The Lucid Transporter
 Regular frequency for reaching REM and dream states. In waking consciousness, this frequency can be used to consciously connect us with higher levels of concentration, productivity and calming techniques.

Transcendental Step 1 - The Beginning
Individual - Root Feeling
Group - Shared Motivation

Alignment and acceptance grow in awareness.

Principles are more than a metaphorical shield against adversity.

Clarity
 Who What Where When Why and the 6th sense of what this all means in the moment.

The age old idea of knowing yourself, your desires and how you will get there.

For Business
 Are we sure everyone is on the same page?
 Training, practice, role-playing, meetings, strategies, innovation, thinking on our feet, acronyms, one-on-ones, processes, best practices, department overflow, turn-over, training.
 Culture building is pattern maintenance.

Compassion
 The Catch-all for Understanding

Even the ego sleeps. Even if we won't allow tough feelings in throughout the day. The human system has ways of dealing with stubbornness.

For Business
 Sometimes in business we follow all the rules. We follow all the steps in the process. We administrate and procure all the proper paperwork. We apply all the appropriate behaviours.
 Only to find out that politically correct, is not always the same as correct. Do not let the fear of liability get in the way of supportive behaviours.

Courage
 Whether starting over or beginning that next-level journey. It takes courage to forge a direction.

Seeking only the easy path. Is a difficult path to defeat.

For Business
 Change cannot be readily administered, controlled, or even properly braced for.
 On the high seas of commerce. The first level of courage was embarking with your corporate-ship.
 It's about finding ways to mend and upgrade without tearing down the core pillars of structure.

For Relationships
 Include sleep as a tool for your partnership, decision-making process.

For Business Leaders
 Give them more than advice, attention and orders. Give them your awareness.

Works Best For Individuals
 When we are open to change. Knowing that nothing real can stay the same forever.

Be Aware
 These frequencies are alluring but can lead to captivating states of being. This is where cleverness can become laziness. Ecstasy can become addiction. Or when disciplines and best practices fall by the way-side.

Works Best For Groups
 When time is set aside to give opportunity for new thought to be listened to. Research & Development with your teams has great value.

The struggle of the waking states is real. Sometimes comfort and anxiety seem inexplicably linked together. We know the best of plans are likely to meet obstacles. Knowing this, is a way to always find confidence in our purpose and foundation, even when struggle occurs. Conscious energy in this realm is best utilized for protecting the outlook. Prepare your ability to utilize gamma frequencies and find ways to sense the layers of your awareness.

Beta Waves - Attention Soldier!

Often associated with anxiety, nervousness and other states of being that many people find uncomfortable and prefer avoiding. These waves are underestimated for their ability to predict and prepare as they bring wide-ranging considerations to psyche. Connecting with them, helps us realize where our static is coming from and how we can diffuse or reuse it.

Alpha Wave - Your Confidence Pattern

Every individual has their own unique Alpha State. A place where they emanate their own version of this frequency. It is why we all recognize our Alpha as personal comforts or dominance.

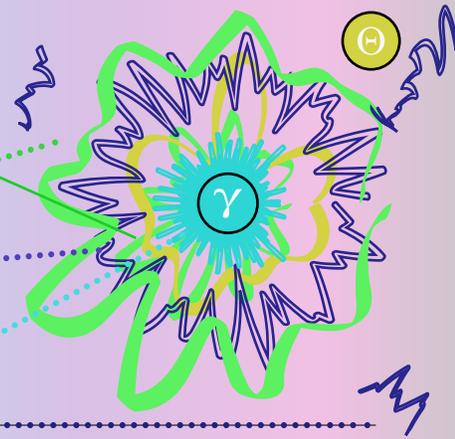

Generally great for communication, as it is the easiest frequency for people to create shareable states of being.

Layered Alpha Waves

Inner Beta Frequency (Normal)

Transcendental Step 2 - The Design

Individual - How will your journey unfold?
Group - Implementation Strategy

The Ideal Path

Agreement is the cement for business relations.

It becomes more than mere belief when you apply action.

Harmony

When you know you go. You may stumble or fall, but you never get to far from the course.

Experience reminds you of the costs of recovery. And provides you the ability of weighing your own actions before they've occurred. A great benefit.

For Business

Clear the connotations away from the words. Value the longterm as much as the short-term.

Just knowing that trusting people is the key to being trusted by people, is enough to create balance within teams

Luck

Desired by many who would never feel comfortable relying on it.

Reshape your understanding of it. Preparation and opportunity are fine ingredients for use in lifestyle recipes.

For Business

Can luck really be planned for?

Prepare your team, foster good habits and watch as everything falls into place.

Admit when you've been in a state of luck to discover tools for humility.

Manifestation

The act of bringing forth what is in you. The intangible becoming tangible.

You may smash goals of physical activity, solve problems with ingenuity or create art that will never be created again. Apart from being an outlet this is a high form of human communication.

For Business

Sometimes allowing creation to take place is more important for chemistry, brainstorming, communication, coordinating and many other intangible values then the creation itself.

In emotional roles such as sales or during times of difficult interpersonal meetings. It is important to remember to take small breaks as feelings do take a toll on all of us, from time to time.

For Relationships

You are only ever in control of your own commitments. It's about making sure you can keep those.

For Business Leaders

Make the shape of your communication as circular as possible.

Be Aware

Fear leads to anger. Anger leads to hate. Hate leads to suffering.

Anxiety does not have to be the path to the dark side. Whatever that is for you, a smile inwards can lead to the opposite direction.

Works Best For Individuals

Who know that worrying is a vicious cycle. When you are aware that you are worrying about worrying, you will know to stop.

Works Best For Groups

When we know that it is a team effort and every individual matters.

Transcendental Step 3 - The Crunch

Individual - The obstacle or the catch.

Group - Delegate for shared purpose.

This is the moment for holding a state of being for a prolonged time.

In step one the desire or shared motivation was analyzed.

This led to the creation of strategy, as our energies became focused on the goal of reaching the next level.

After the first few steps are taken, it is time to maintain character until the goal is reached.

Although the journey has just begun, the focus of this step is on the landing.

We know the adversity is coming. We may not know the shape or form of obstacle coming our way, but this is a necessary step for success.

This frequency is where we find the elements for impactful results.

γ

This frequency is where we find the power for flow states.

Calming Awareness

The Ideal Path

Know thyself.

*Feed on the corn and not the husks.
But know the purpose of both.*

Metaphysics

The tools for utilizing resonance. All individuals have access to the electromagnetic fields operating around us to generate more than just the environment. Connecting with animals and storing emotions within inanimate objects are a few of the more personal ways, that individuals work with reality.

For Business

Learn to utilize political correctness for negotiation with the outside world. While seeking fairness within your operation. Your business is different than any other. Even when processes are modeled, followed or flat out copied. The way your business operates is unique to you, your role within it and the other people who are apart of this economic sphere. Develop processes that go with change rather than attempt to subvert a constant force of nature.

For Relationships

Learn from arguments.
Refuse the game of who is better.

Works Best For Individuals

Plan and prepare for the landing before you get there. This is when past mistakes or failures become wisdom.

Prosperity

It begins within. Even if you were born to a wealthy status, a sheltered life and had every desire handed to you. At some point you will begin your meetings with the real world.

Holding on to wealth can be as tricky to some as gaining it seems to be for others.

Wealth is not an external force separate from you.

For Business

Spend wisely when you have it. But spend.

Don't hold up your local economy for fear of running out of social currency.

By continuing a focus on research & design. While combining training with marketing. Companies maintain an interactivity with the larger community

Your business will be prepared and have allies for when the greater adversities arise.

Be Aware

This is when true character is observable. The darker side of humanity as it appears in the modern day; conceit; egoism and; the depths of abuse. Are often found at this stage of construction. Yet individuals and groups often deny it, when encountered here. We often only realize the repeat of toxic behaviour in hindsight while connecting dots in our mind afterwards.

Protection

We prepare so that we don't have to fight. While success in the experience age is linked with transparency and walking with an open heart. It is still necessary to show some prudence in the realm of sharing and connection. Learn how to sense your beta-waves so that you can transmute anxiety rather than succumb to it.

For Business

Sometimes allowing creation to take place is more important for chemistry, brainstorming, communication, coordinating and many other intangible values then the creation itself.

In emotional roles such as sale or service and during times of difficult interpersonal meetings.

It is important to remember to take small breaks as feelings do take a toll on all of us, from time to time.

For Business Leaders

A great leader creates trust. Gift it to gain it.

Works Best For Groups

The tangible metrics are already readily available. Spend time finding the intangibles of your people, your business and your market.

Transcendental Step 4 - New Energy

Individual - The reward
Group - The Monetary/Energetic Compensation

Energy is flowing all around us. It moves through us and it shares information in ways that are not always readily observable.

It is a connecting force between the individual and the environment. It layers into the direct group and so on.

It is both a cause and an effect, similarly to the way an elemental particle, doing its work as a building block for known life can be in, superposition.

Whether you are aware or not.

This energetic exchange happens.

This is the nature of the fundamental particles which make up our ever changing reality.

The age that is upon us, will cause anxiety for many as we shift into something unimaginable to many.

Light and vibration will be part of the equations for business as we move forward towards a societal resonance; stemming from stable economic cores and spreading outwards.

The Ideal Path

True relaxation is where growth and healing occur.

There is always more work to do. But you are working smarter now.

Regeneration

Sometimes we stay on an unhealthy path because we don't want to give up. We feel we can overcome an obstacle that maybe is meant for our future self to face independently.

Accept support in your life, as it comes in its various forms.

For Business

The seasons of events and holidays are the societal expectations of local culture. Utilize them but also find ways of sharing productivity to create further productivity.

The exponential possibilities which science has been promising is available with our level of technology. The new frontier is rooted in psychology and feeling.

Tranquility

This is a feeling and an art. The feeling comes upon us and we're okay if it lasts forever. We're also okay if it decides to leave us immediately.

The art for the individual, is tapping into that feeling for bringing solace to the now.

For Business

Share and update nostalgia. Corporate storytelling isn't for outward advertising. Understand Internal Customer Theory.

Vitality

We win some things, we lose some things and often we don't even know what we want.

But when you know your principles, when you find ways to discover more about yourself and how you interact with the parts of the environment which were undetectable. You tap into the restorative excitement of the Experience Age, which has now emerged.

For Business

Talk through the difficult situations. Reach out, make time the time to listen. The energy of ingenuity is inside your business already. We as leaders need to become better at finding it, and procuring from it.

Move from analogies of past focus, and towards themes of local cultivation. Find new success.

For Relationships

Is it a break, is it over, or have you simply met more adversity than you expected? Let go. Momentarily feel and gauge frequencies outside of your bubble.

For Business Leaders

If a battle is lost. The leaders will seek the blame. This is true leadership and is an action for winning the larger competitions of commerce as well as the hearts of your people.

Works Best For Individuals

Who actually know how to relax and the virtue that can come from it.

Be Aware

This is it. There is no true timeline for this moment, as it is that, a moment. When it occurs for you or a group, it is a portal either to a reset or the next level of your larger journey or undertaking. Remember to breathe, relax and rest. These should be part of any health system. Take time for yourself, daily, weekly, annually and so on.

Works Best For Groups

Cultivation is a process where all parts work together. Customers and Companies are part of the same group, not alienated adversaries.

WHY THIS MATTERS

The ability to create almost anything the mind can conceive, is what the Experience Age delivers.

An exponential rate of technological progress has outpaced humanity's ability to process. New educational or instructional institutions will be rooted in the psyche.

For Individuals: How we interact with the electromagnetic field can lead to happiness on top of the freedoms, securities and liberty that humans of past ages worked towards and also died for. Of course it takes more than just a mindset. Learn to utilize a starting point though!

For Societies: This provides an opportunity for revival, which will bring forth a stability in economics and quality of life. As we focus on character over identity. Rather than further decline into social issues, monetary issues and "isms."

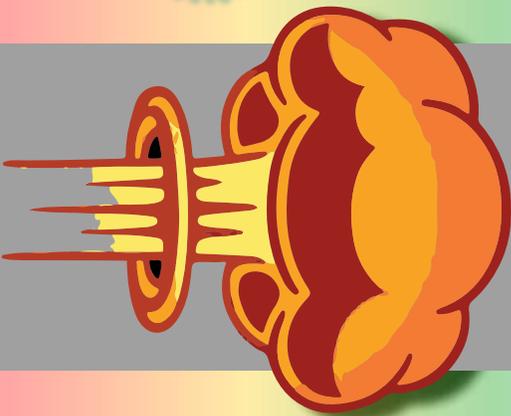

For Business: In this Age, priorities and thought realignment will occur naturally. Customer strategies will be based around attraction principles rooted in holistic impact. Solid resonance will be the new branding. Find out what this means for your organization...

So what is this Experience Age, anyways...?

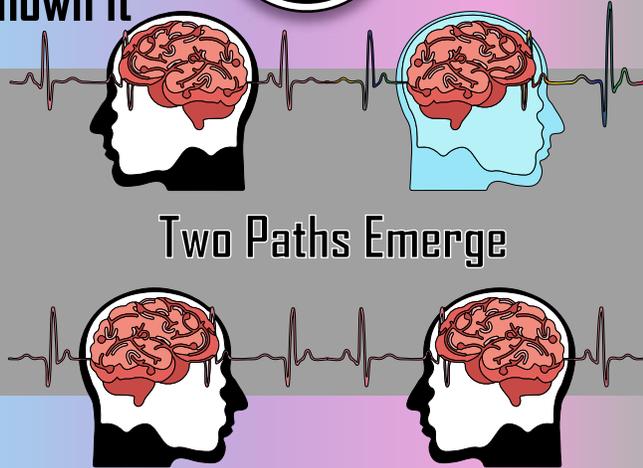

There was history as we have known it

Then the Atomic Age

led to the Information Age

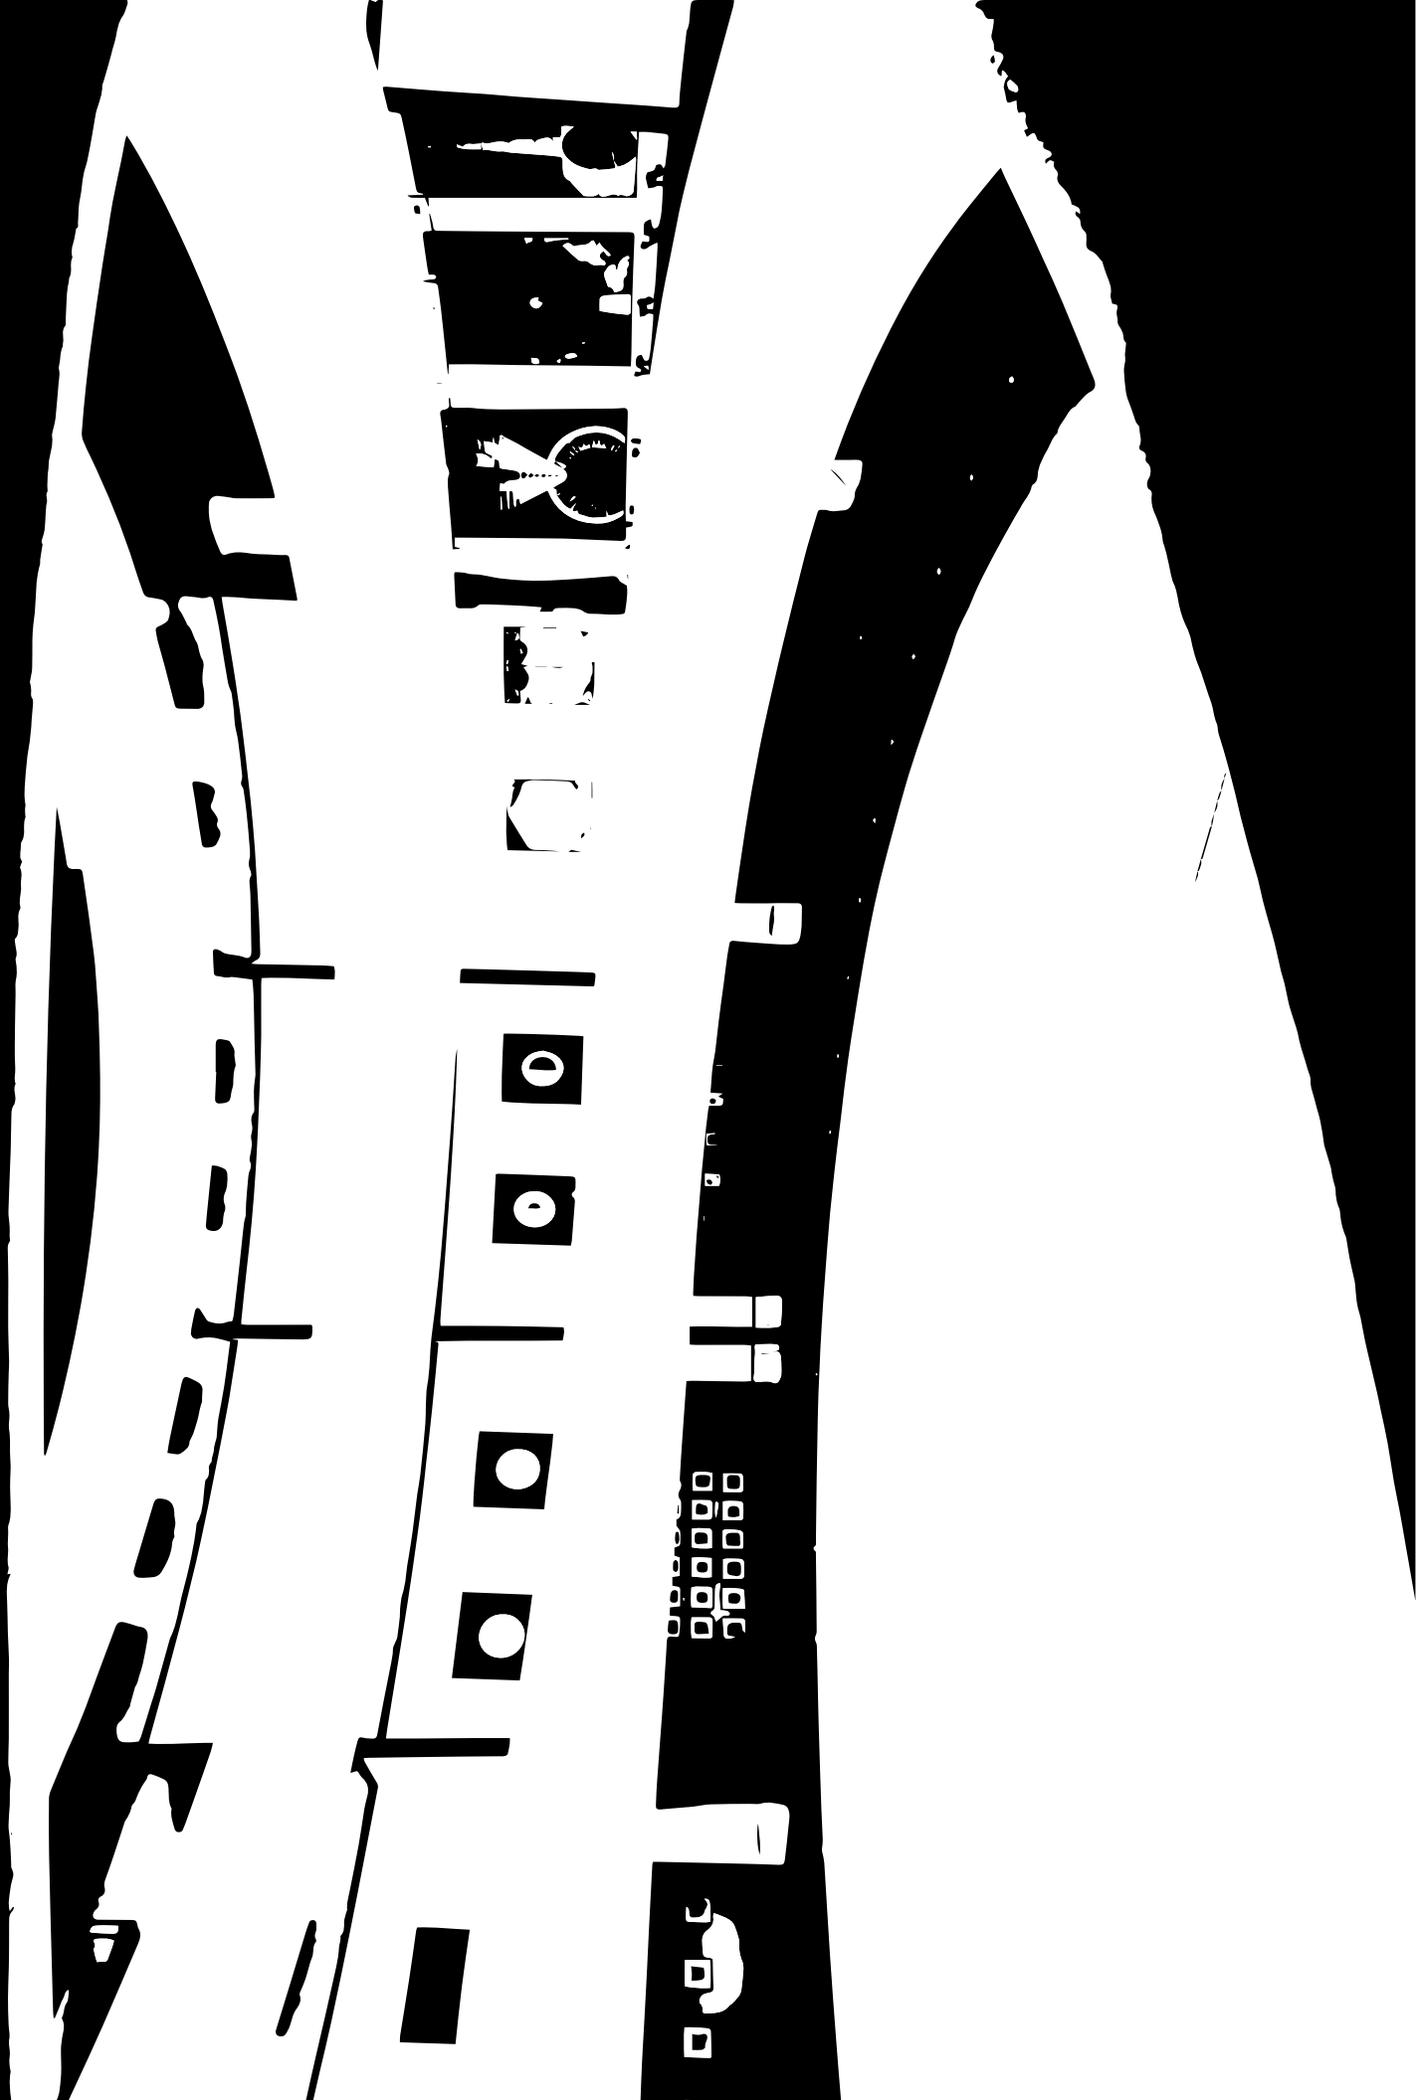

Two Paths Emerge

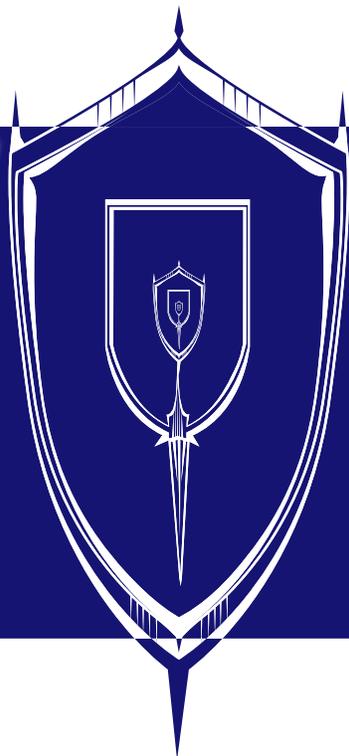

and now new choices emerge

Previous transitions, happened across cultures at different times. This one will be felt individually. As truth becomes more evident to people, the gray area will reduce. New roads will emerge, yet only towards a lived contradiction of fewer choices. The Experience Age is what you, your family, team or company are going through now, or will be soon. Just like everyone else.

THE NATURE OF POWER

We encourage the reader to think of large, mainstream institutions, in the form of governments and the private sector. This is done, to provide real world thought anchors for discussing the fundamentals of society. The reader is asked, to keep their own situations in mind, as the principles are scalable. We speak broadly for maximum relatability.

Our borders are not just on maps or contracts, but are found within the collective psyche of populations. Belief systems, etiquette structure, upbringing, social structures and so on; to often are taken for granted when an individual is faced with the group dynamics of modern life. How this has worked up until recently, was a closely guarded secret amongst brands who many believed, were just protecting their own intellectual property.

The information age was all about marketing and also it's shadowing counterpart, propaganda.

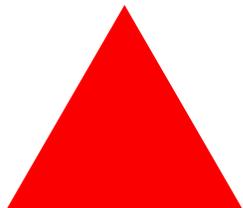

Governing bodies are like filters over the land and culture.

They effectively operate as patterns of our authoritative-people (i.e. management).

The different sectors (in the 1st World) are not quite the caste systems of tougher times but do carry similar energy in a modern-day version. The difference from history is that our systems (of what is essentially triangular agreements), have been able to expand in more dynamic ways, as layers have been added over time.

On top of the issues you may face as a business owner, team leader, division manager, entrepreneur, or just as an individual person. The larger socio-economic issues which seem like macrocosms to large for us to focus on; are also weighing on you regardless of individual awareness. Even if a role in society can not be found within the vaguely defined sectors below, the electromagnetic spectrum and the nature of authority would still find a way to affect outcomes.

Authority Sectors

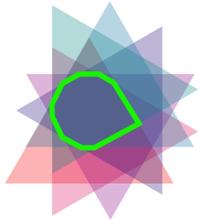

These will twist and spin over time. As laws, behaviours, reactions and interactions of society are constantly being reinforced or changed. For this illustration, triangles and rotation are being used as a reduced interpretation of power and authority over groups and individuals.

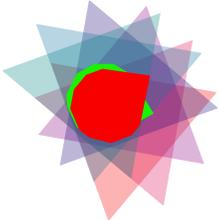

Overlap and create pressure on groups and individuals.

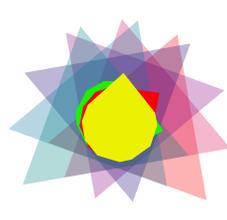

Beginning of a society. Clear rules, agreed zone of control. (Good Member citizens).

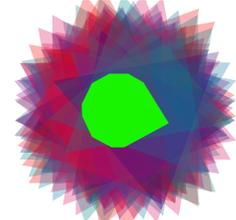

Laws and customs change over time. Some citizens are no longer good, without changing.

More Legal change. Tradition and progress are now at odds in society.

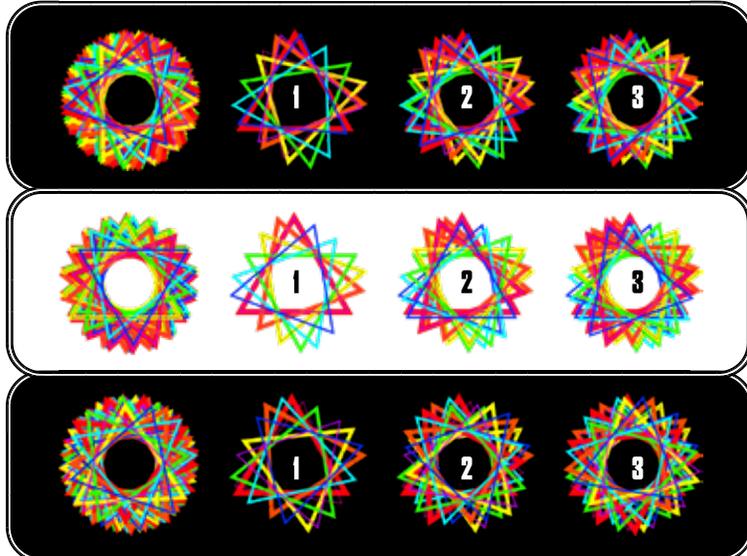

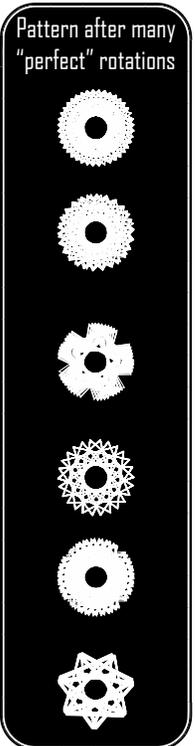

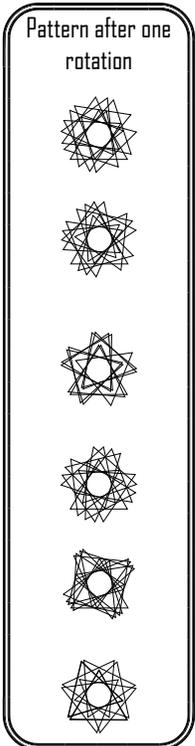

Natural corruption of power on display. Original good vs new zone of control.

Specifically, governing power takes shape through psychological reinforcement. This creates a pattern in the collective consciousness of people while still allowing for a controlled level of individuality. When much of the group agrees that governance is good so far as their behaviours and actions allow economics to continue. A mindset spreads in order to strengthen the governing party. The structure of the government and its relationship with the people over time must be flexible and rigid enough to endure the complexities of power. As more layers are added through rotations, diversity, social issues, etc. Below are simple and complex patterns to depict the change in pattern and natural corruption properties of cultures, societies and groups which regulate and isolate frequencies for control.

Rotations in Colour

With all the pressure and stimuli on groups and individuals alike, to perform. It's no wonder institutional power is hard to maintain.

This is only taking into account our collective psyche, not to mention all the real world logistics, planning and politicking that used to be normal for Information Age governance.

Look at how much the opening structures change with 1, 2 and 3 rotations. ("Perfect" indicates the same degree of spin each time).

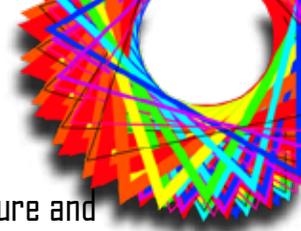

With many spins the shape in the center appears to become more stable. Yet, as a representation for power, that would take years of retracing over the same collective neural pathways to reach that level.

More Patterns

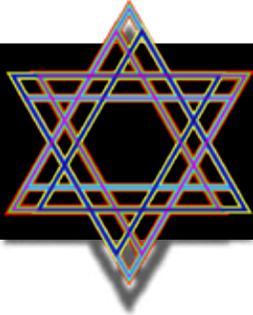

(Math is beautiful)

If you could visualize the ideal pattern for running your business. In terms of structure and the mind's eye. What would be the best structure for success?

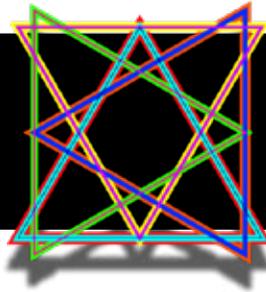

The numbers below represent the degree of rotation which formed these patterns.
Can you apply your work routines and weekly-patterns to the structures below?

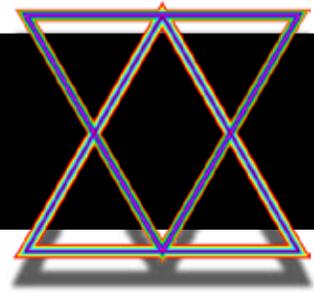

60

180

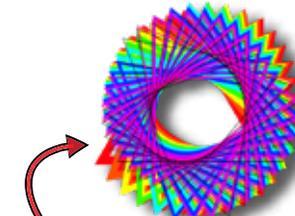

150 degrees of rotation creates a wonderful shape after many rotations. Seems great for a private sector-business built upon a strong foundation of team and caring principles. As each link in the structure would need to hold strong, for them to survive the beginning stages of commerce.

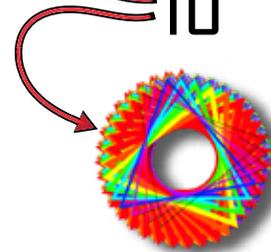

150

10 Degrees rotation would be very stable as a large governance system once fully cultured.

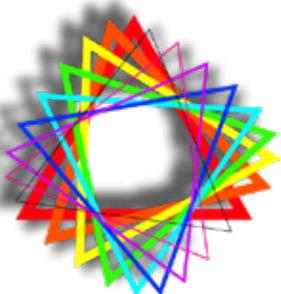

10

However, the slow rate of spin means this would take a long time to form. (Likely over generations of people).

Patterns and the layers that make them up.

Is everyone aware of where

Next we will look at the structure for communication.

Does your business find its

Goal Types

Change comes to all.
So Be Ready!

Forever Goals: Also called Infinite Goals. These should be big and broad enough to feel just out of reach. Something that feels bigger than you. The purpose is to fuel you with internal motivation, keep you aligned to your principles and allow you to choose your own ceiling.

Someday Goals: Events you save and dream for. Life events. Travel Events. Experiences that allow you to step out of your routine or change it entirely.

5 - Year Goals: Previous to the Information Age. This was at one time the big goal people, thought about. Now it is more closely associated with interview questions. This is still a good gauge for potential and can provide analytics for individual self-worth.

Annual Goals: As Loose as resolutions and as serious as contractual performance metrics. Annual goals are often a great source of energy. They are both flexible and timely enough to be shared in group settings.

Quarterly Goals: Best used as a reflection tool. No matter the performance metrics an individual chooses to utilize for measuring their progression. The quarterly goal should be a routine moment connected to the continual intuitive movements you are making now.

Monthly Goals: These are best for connecting with your points in society. Everyone knows the feeling of experiencing the first few days of a well planned month.

Weekly Goals: These keep us tied with current events, communities and the company we keep. In essence this is the planned movements of our social circles.

Daily Goals: These goals are often the most subjective of any goals an individual or group will set.

Work/Public Goals: How the individual appears to the larger society, or how they appear in their role. External Reward Systems.

Private/Personal Goals: How the individual appears to themselves or closest groups. Internal Reward Systems.

In the EXPERIENCE AGE, consumer's & competitors will share more access to a top-down view of your business. This will lead to new cultural and corporate shapes.

STRUCTURES

Imagine a corporate hierarchy of personnel, as if it were a real building. What does the structure, of the decision making floor, look like?

Look through the examples on this page. This is a visual outline of what corporate structures can look like from an energetic standpoint. The contracts, rules and regulations employed by companies dictate the flow, but the energy for corporate function is always supplied by the individuals. An understanding of these interactions will give any leader, access to untapped resources.

Companies, Hierarchies & Organizations

Business comes in all shapes and sizes.

Traditionally, this was the most commonly-held shape for the top levels of company hierarchies.

Forget about WHAT the colours are:

Does your team compliment one another?
Is your leadership analogous or diverse?

Find your shape:
How many points, make up the official connections in your executive/decision making group?

There is no right or wrong, to how it is formed. However, outside observations must be utilized in order for leadership to have clarity. A fundamental ingredient for making wise decisions.

Individual

The circle in the center represents the agency every individual has. While relative to circumstances, situations and the options available in the moment. Agency is at the core of every human in some measure and thus serves as a shared connection point between humans, at the very least.

Various Complexities

Everything from our intent all the way to our actions. Our thoughts, our speech, our body language and so many more things go into the effects which individuals can have on a group or setting. How they overlap are as much dependent on the group state of mind at the moment and how the structure itself has been formed over the years.

Partnerships and duos.

Teams, arise within corporate structures. Sometimes by design and other times through survival instincts.

Balance

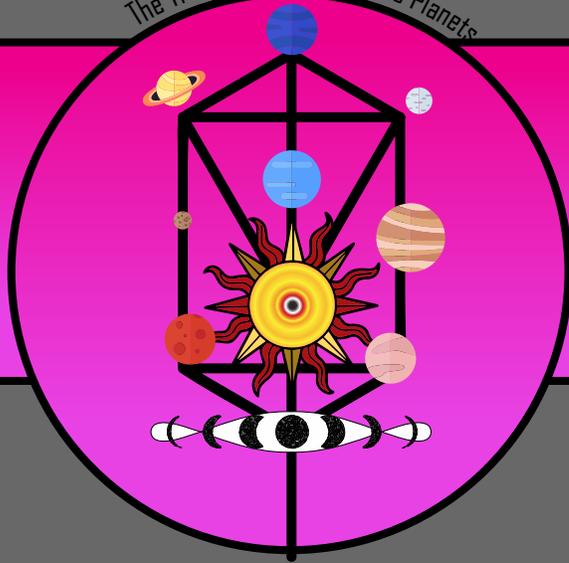

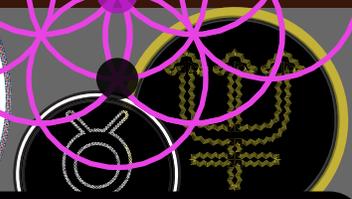

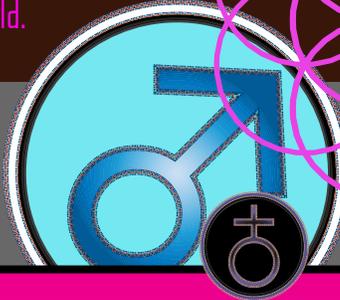

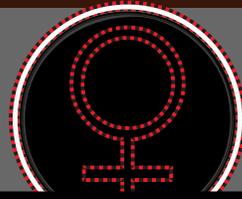

A broad view of systems throughout cultures and history.

This is a representation of the flower of life (found in sacred geometry). This symbol has been used as a basis for societal engineering all over the world.

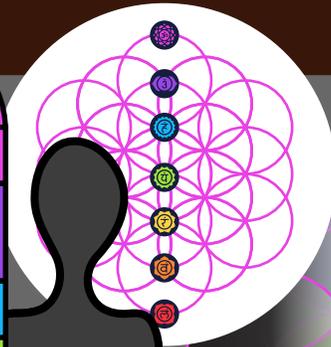

The Tree of life becomes the Planets

Sometimes symbols are used, other times more depictive illustrations, but many concepts still revolve around the solar system. In many of the things we reference, such as when dealing with corporate, government, or academic business. Planets can represent institutions which will always be around in some form or fashion. These are natural archetypes for society (specifically duties vs titles.).

The chakras and their system align here as well.

Similar systems emerge, different expressions, of seemingly very similar ideals.

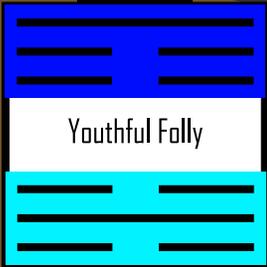

This form of expression, the aforementioned tree of life, carries enough symbology to effectively bridge systems of the psyche that at one point seemed too far apart to ever connect.

The I Ching is another way for making everyday decisions in life.

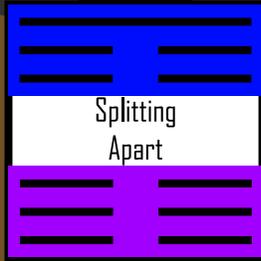

And although it seems to stand culturally apart; it also has connection with the other systems.

PEOPLE-LESS HOMES

The belief that society takes care of its heroes

People are inherently Good

Nope
They are inherently neutral

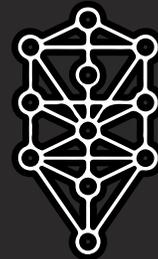

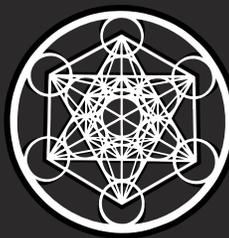

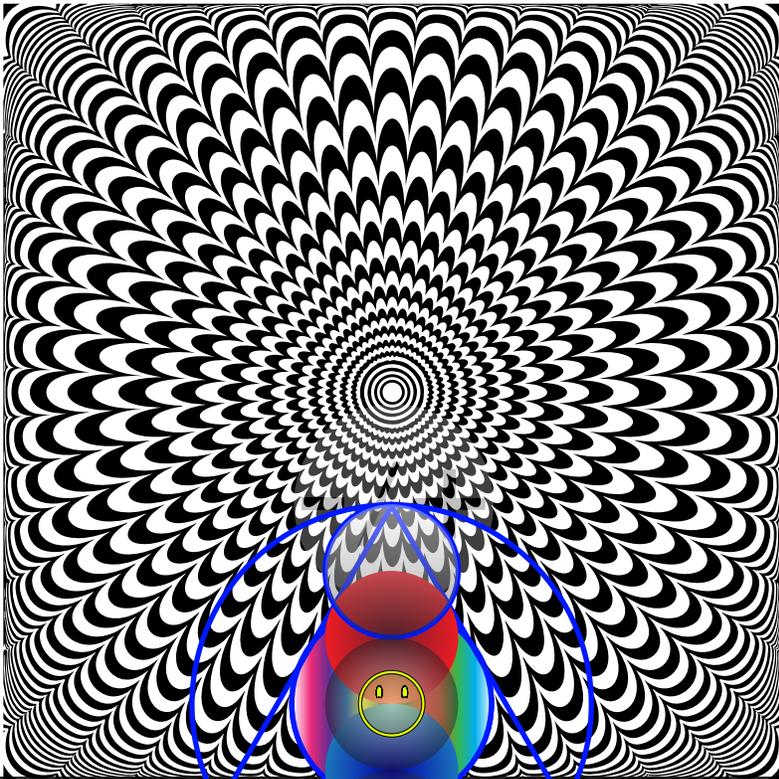

Our cultures have been stuck in a duality conundrum since at least the ending of the second world war if not longer. The evidence is everywhere, nuclear energy, completely changed the world in a 3 day span. While this was not the way that good people would envision using nuclear capabilities...🧠 We will press forward to the objective point, which we can now observe in the modern day. Many of the patterns, which are harming people today have origins still emanating distinctly from that time.

The path forward is rooted in bridging gaps between our individual and collective psyches.

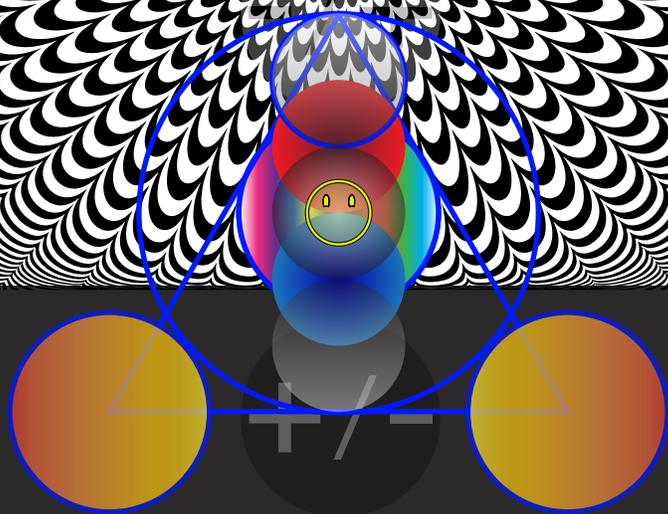

What you can do for yourself: Breathe, take a moment of reflection. No matter your state of emotion.

Use the tools of culture

Welcome to the Experience Age.

The individual must learn to become their own Master.

A simplification... Admittedly, yet necessary for individual and group progress.

22nd century psychology, thus far, has brought information of shadow work through academia and to the masses. It accumulated for a time and is now being revealed to all the cities, through various routes.

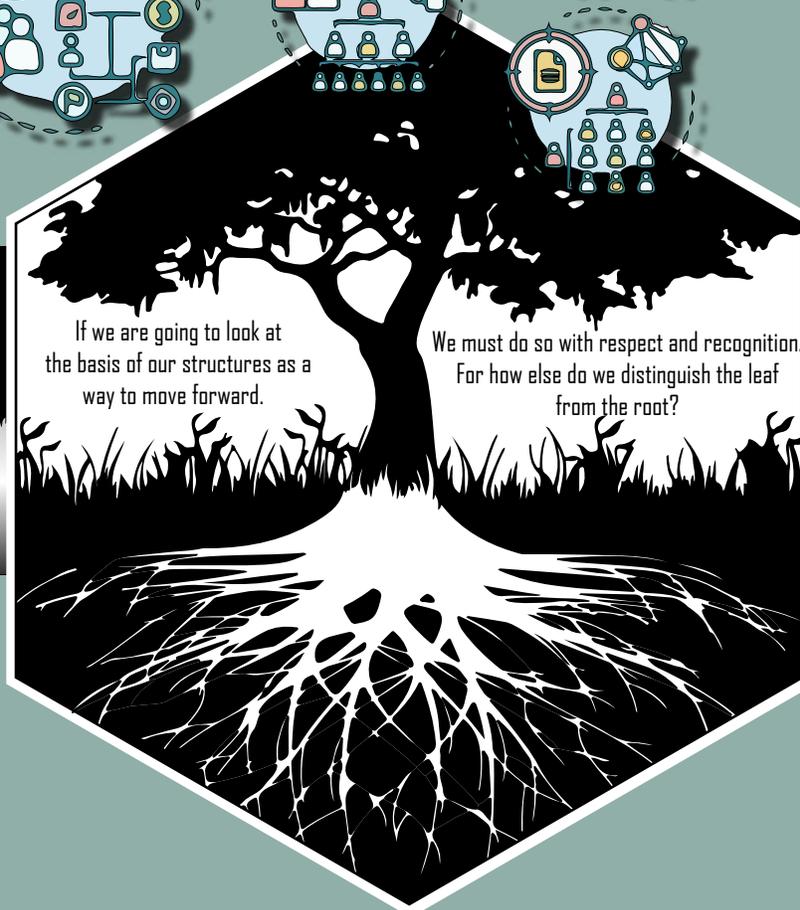

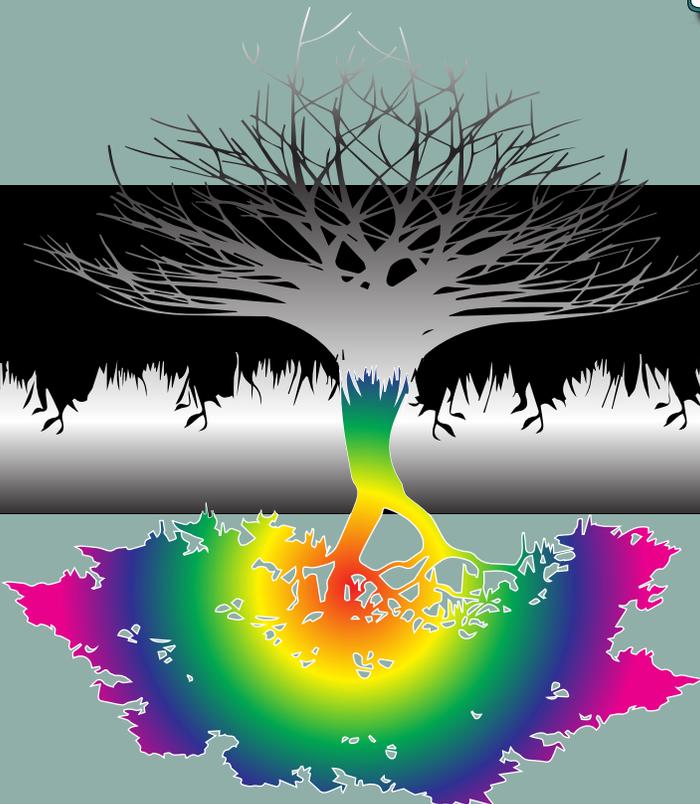

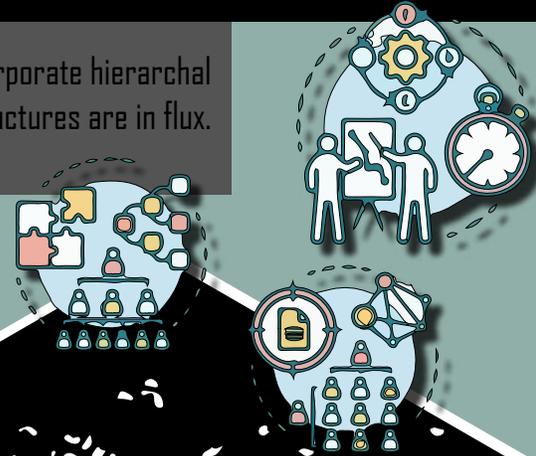

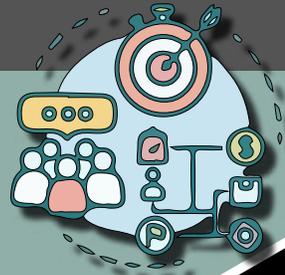

Meanwhile science revealed through physics, is now showing that the behaviours of particles and those of human interaction have many similarities. Such as the observation that a 3rd party (observer) changes the outcome of interactions. Or mysteries such as those of quantum entanglement.

We must simplify beliefs by finding the bridges and agreeing on priorities over specifics. In order to agree that constructive behaviour is desirable in the Experience Age.

Even our corporate hierarchical structures are in flux.

If we are going to look at the basis of our structures as a way to move forward.

We must do so with respect and recognition. For how else do we distinguish the leaf from the root?

Questions at the root of it all

What comes after?

What comes Next?

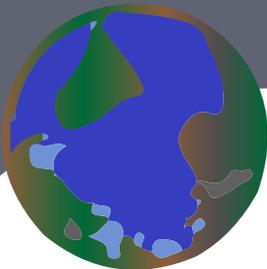

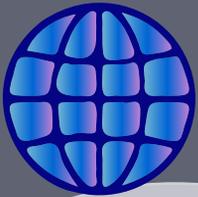

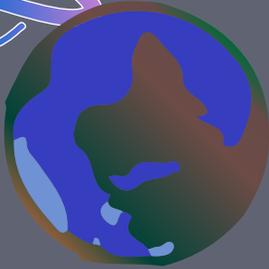

And then what happens?

All over the world, the Internet and our global culture.
People are seeking some sort of personal enlightenment.

How many times, an individual must repeat a cycle to
"get it."
Is unique to them.

And what is taken from
it, is always individual.

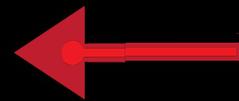

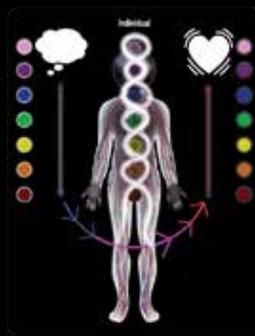

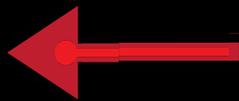

Despite this conundrum. The message is always the same...

Authenticity Realized.

(A conceptual pathway)

They will experience a breakthrough or a reset.

Once an individual achieves personal balance.

Observations of duality.

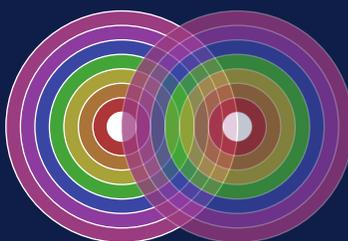

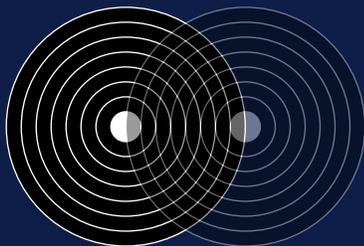

Until thoughts of new patterns and colours emerge.

Become thoughts of angles and shadows.

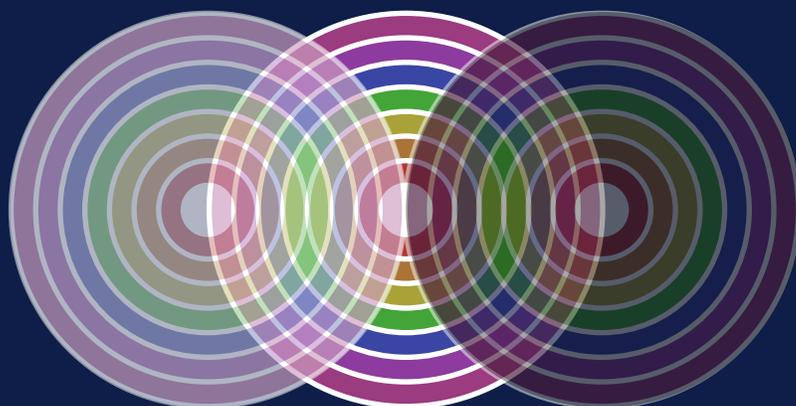

Polarization... Even without the vibrancy of colour.
More realities emerge from simple duality.

Colour adds complexity. Yet the observer is aware of a truth at this point.
Contradiction is a tool for navigation.

Does the individual know their own center in the face of distortion? Are they always the cause of their own effects?

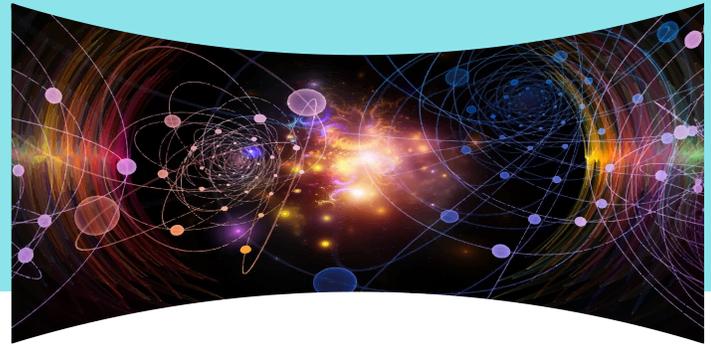

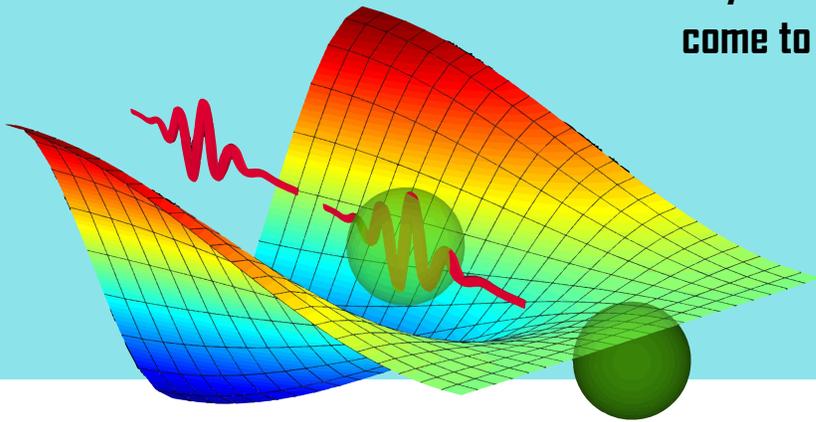

What else is attached to our vibrations?

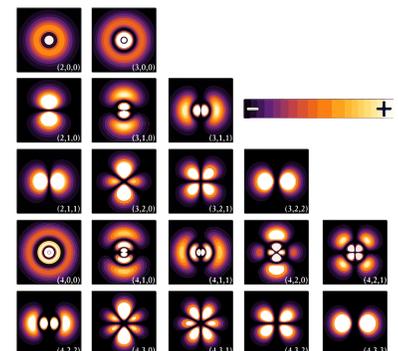

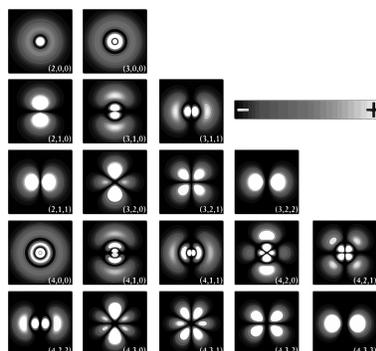

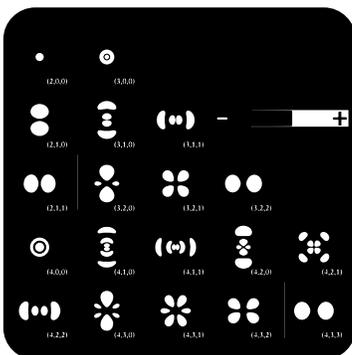

Once the individual knows they and their shadow are one and the same.

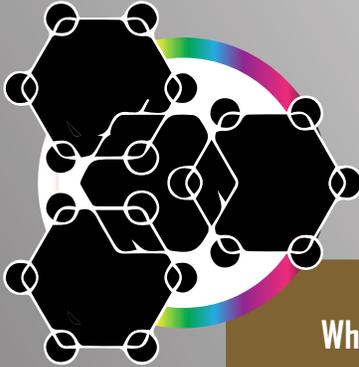

Reality will unfold for that individual, as they come to grips with their core identity.

The difference can only be hinted at as true understanding is more sensation of a sensation and new awareness. As the individual will see with new eyes, once more.

No matter the system an individual chooses...

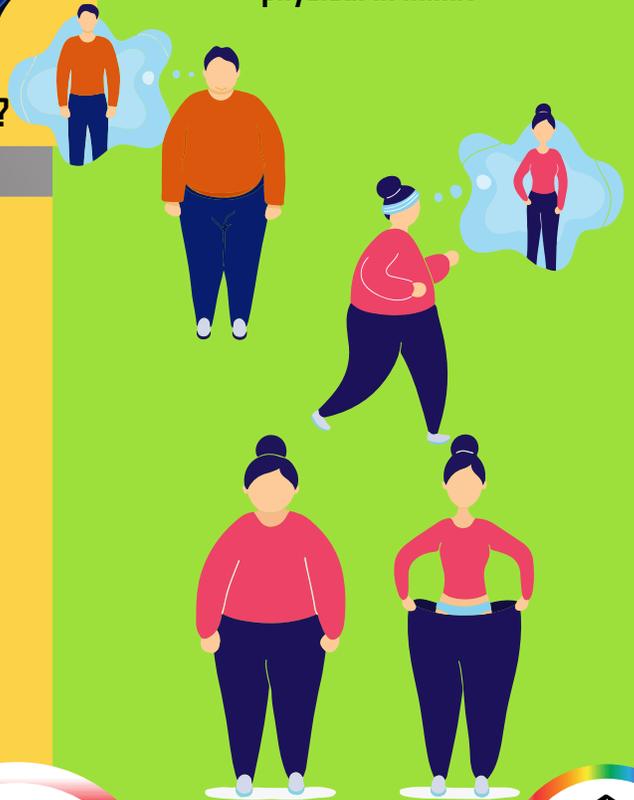

Whether for some sort of transcendent enlightenment or just a day to day routine.

Whether you are looking for an entire cellular transformation?

Or have something more physical in mind?

It already happens!

We promise that this is more than a repetitive slogan.

We don't mean 100% of the time you MUST do these things...! Although, what a nice sentiment to hold wink.

Just do these things a little more. And don't get so heavily involved in the opposite direction so that you begin to hurt people.

These are nice sentiments to be sure. However, simply thinking positively and sharing feelings of hope can only be a beginning. Doing only this, leaves too much power in assumptions of individual awareness levels for everybody else.

Honesty, proximity and sharing actually do matter to the quality of individual and societal life.

Globalization and the INTERNET have brought large amounts of information to individual minds of humanity. So much so that we are aware of an evolutionary process as it takes place.

However some things never change:

What we're not sure about or what we may not be able to say.

Context Matters

It's typically not so easy, to say that something is just good or evil. Simple or Difficult. Black or White.

If we are speaking Mystically
You can now see the simplicity of duality. The Layers of the Chakras.
And the beginning of the Electromagnetic Spectrum.
In case you couldn't before.

This is how Corruption and Regeneration can take place on any level.

By any level we mean to say that these principles and others like them are happening all the time. Whether it is an everyday conversation that you, dear observer, are having with someone. Or the operations of particle physics that are operated on by physicists; or maybe even the practical psychology of pharmaceutical practices. So on and so forth.

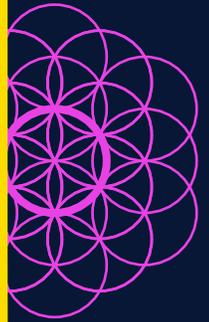

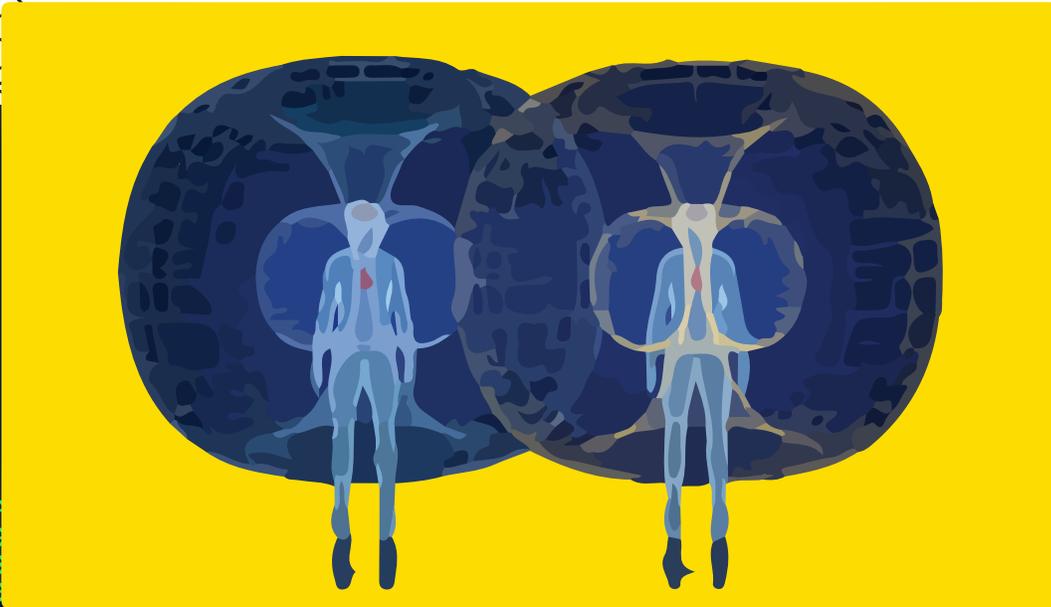

Not only has physics discovered this.

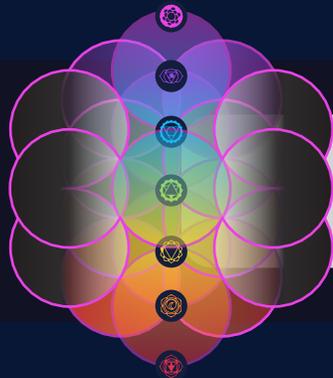

But the ramifications are what the world is now going through! As we realize collectively what good and bad on every level actually means. Likewise with the extent to which they exist and how they work upon our psyches. The Experience Age is about clear living and living clearly. That means becoming wise to the knowledge of who has been up to what; forgiving wherever we can and figuring out how to stop the internal corruption from happening again. All while keeping society functioning well.

Calgary & Alberta Focused

*We have the People

In 2004 Alberta had paid off the provincial debt. And now it is back larger than ever.

This is due to a variety of factors that are not necessarily any one Albertan's fault. Yet, individual/family wealth is scheduled to be reduced. Careers and hopes are being dashed. But rather than explain the problems here. Know that there are solutions.

Uneducated Philosophy

A pattern. Designed to ease the stress on Calgary's private sector. It is a pathway to a new paradigm in which our local businesses no longer need to follow the leaders of industry (National/Global) as the opportunities to become a city of leaders is before us.

All industries are currently moving from the information era to the experience era. Thus our design is predicated on broad community goals which can be shared openly amongst the private sector. Business of all sizes will be able to extend their neural network as we bridge the gaps of collective psyche which are harming our local economy. The new age of business is in the realm of the psyche as technology is already set to increase at a warp speed pace. Large moves by nations and corporations around the global stage will continue to happen. Localities that know how to work with the people who share a physical common ground, will be the places that retain choice and liberty. Wealth in this age comes from people and their interactions with new thoughts or experiences.

Benefits

For individual Calgarians:

- Will no longer be treated as a consumer.
- Will find pathways to good business relations.
- Will be able to follow an economic behavioural pathway, in which they can begin to see their positive contributions in real-time. Thereby creating a societal behaviour which induces natural rewards from easily obtained positive experiences.

For the Business Itself:

- Brand awareness and support based on character (Ability to stick to good competencies/policies) leading identity.
- Good business practices will be rewarded naturally by consumers.
- Will learn to shape with their customers.

For the City:

Businesses with local executive levels need to be supported. In return they need to have pathways for easily supporting the economy in return.

Public Sector and Energy Sector Organizations

For Departments: Executives, workers and managers.

- Resource for open discussion about how to move towards working with people based on character over politics.
- These are the tough issues. The "ism's" and elephants in the room that nobody likes to discuss.
- We will foster pathways for open discussion and locally remove the red tape of political correctness. As it is squeezing outdated answers from people who are often, following a psychological system that is in need of a public update. Working towards mediation is the path forward to a brighter Alberta future.

The Private and the Public Sectors are transitioning from co-dependent behaviour to interdependent.

Economics is about velocity and pattern.

Economies involve math. But only as a relationship fashioned similarly to that of construction and centimeters.

Clearly the answers are in our behaviours. So who controls them?

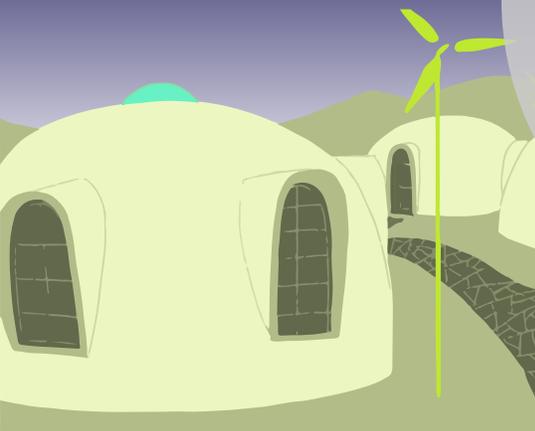

This problem isn't new.

This problem is not reflected clearly.

This problem has more to do with dishonesty, than debt.

And this problem has been around for some time now:

Before factories ever found their way to the third world.

Previous to education costing a house's ransom.

Before Petro Dollar's were a thing and even previous to Boston's colonial Tea Party.

Long before Tulip's were ever used to control currency fluctuation.

Ahead of the ransacking of continents.

And even before the Hopewell Tradition garnered credit within North American History.

Micro-cultures can be created in ways which are too good for the world to ignore.

Setting the stage for cities to become independent as a step to global interdependence.

Full Acknowledgment

Does this read too elaborately or seem grandiose? What else should a goal be? Why would we limit the goal, when we know the extent of the problem. Moreover, the scale is simply the size of one city. Thus it feels doable to us.

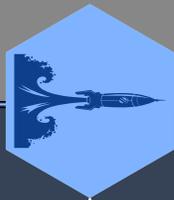

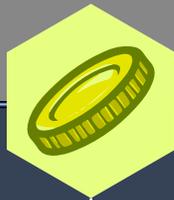

To improve the culture of just one city?

The question is what could one city do for its country if it were thusly improved?

We see abuse in all its forms, as corrosion on the societal engine. Keeping to this metaphor we believe we have found an element for the psyche. One which can be used to remove the abuse and improve the system, simultaneously.

THROUGHOUT THE EXPERIENCE AGE

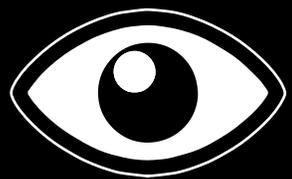

Exploring old pathways and new models towards a society where goodness is more than its own reward. Its the culture.

By rooting our three entities into a character fit for public trust. Live Authentically becomes the centering hub, for a revitalization of community.

REASONS OF NECESSITY:
RESTORE PUBLIC TRUST

In the Experience Age: True economic wealth will come to localities, which are no longer blind to the inter-connection of markets and adjust for the better.

The way to equality in justice is found through equitable stability of the system.

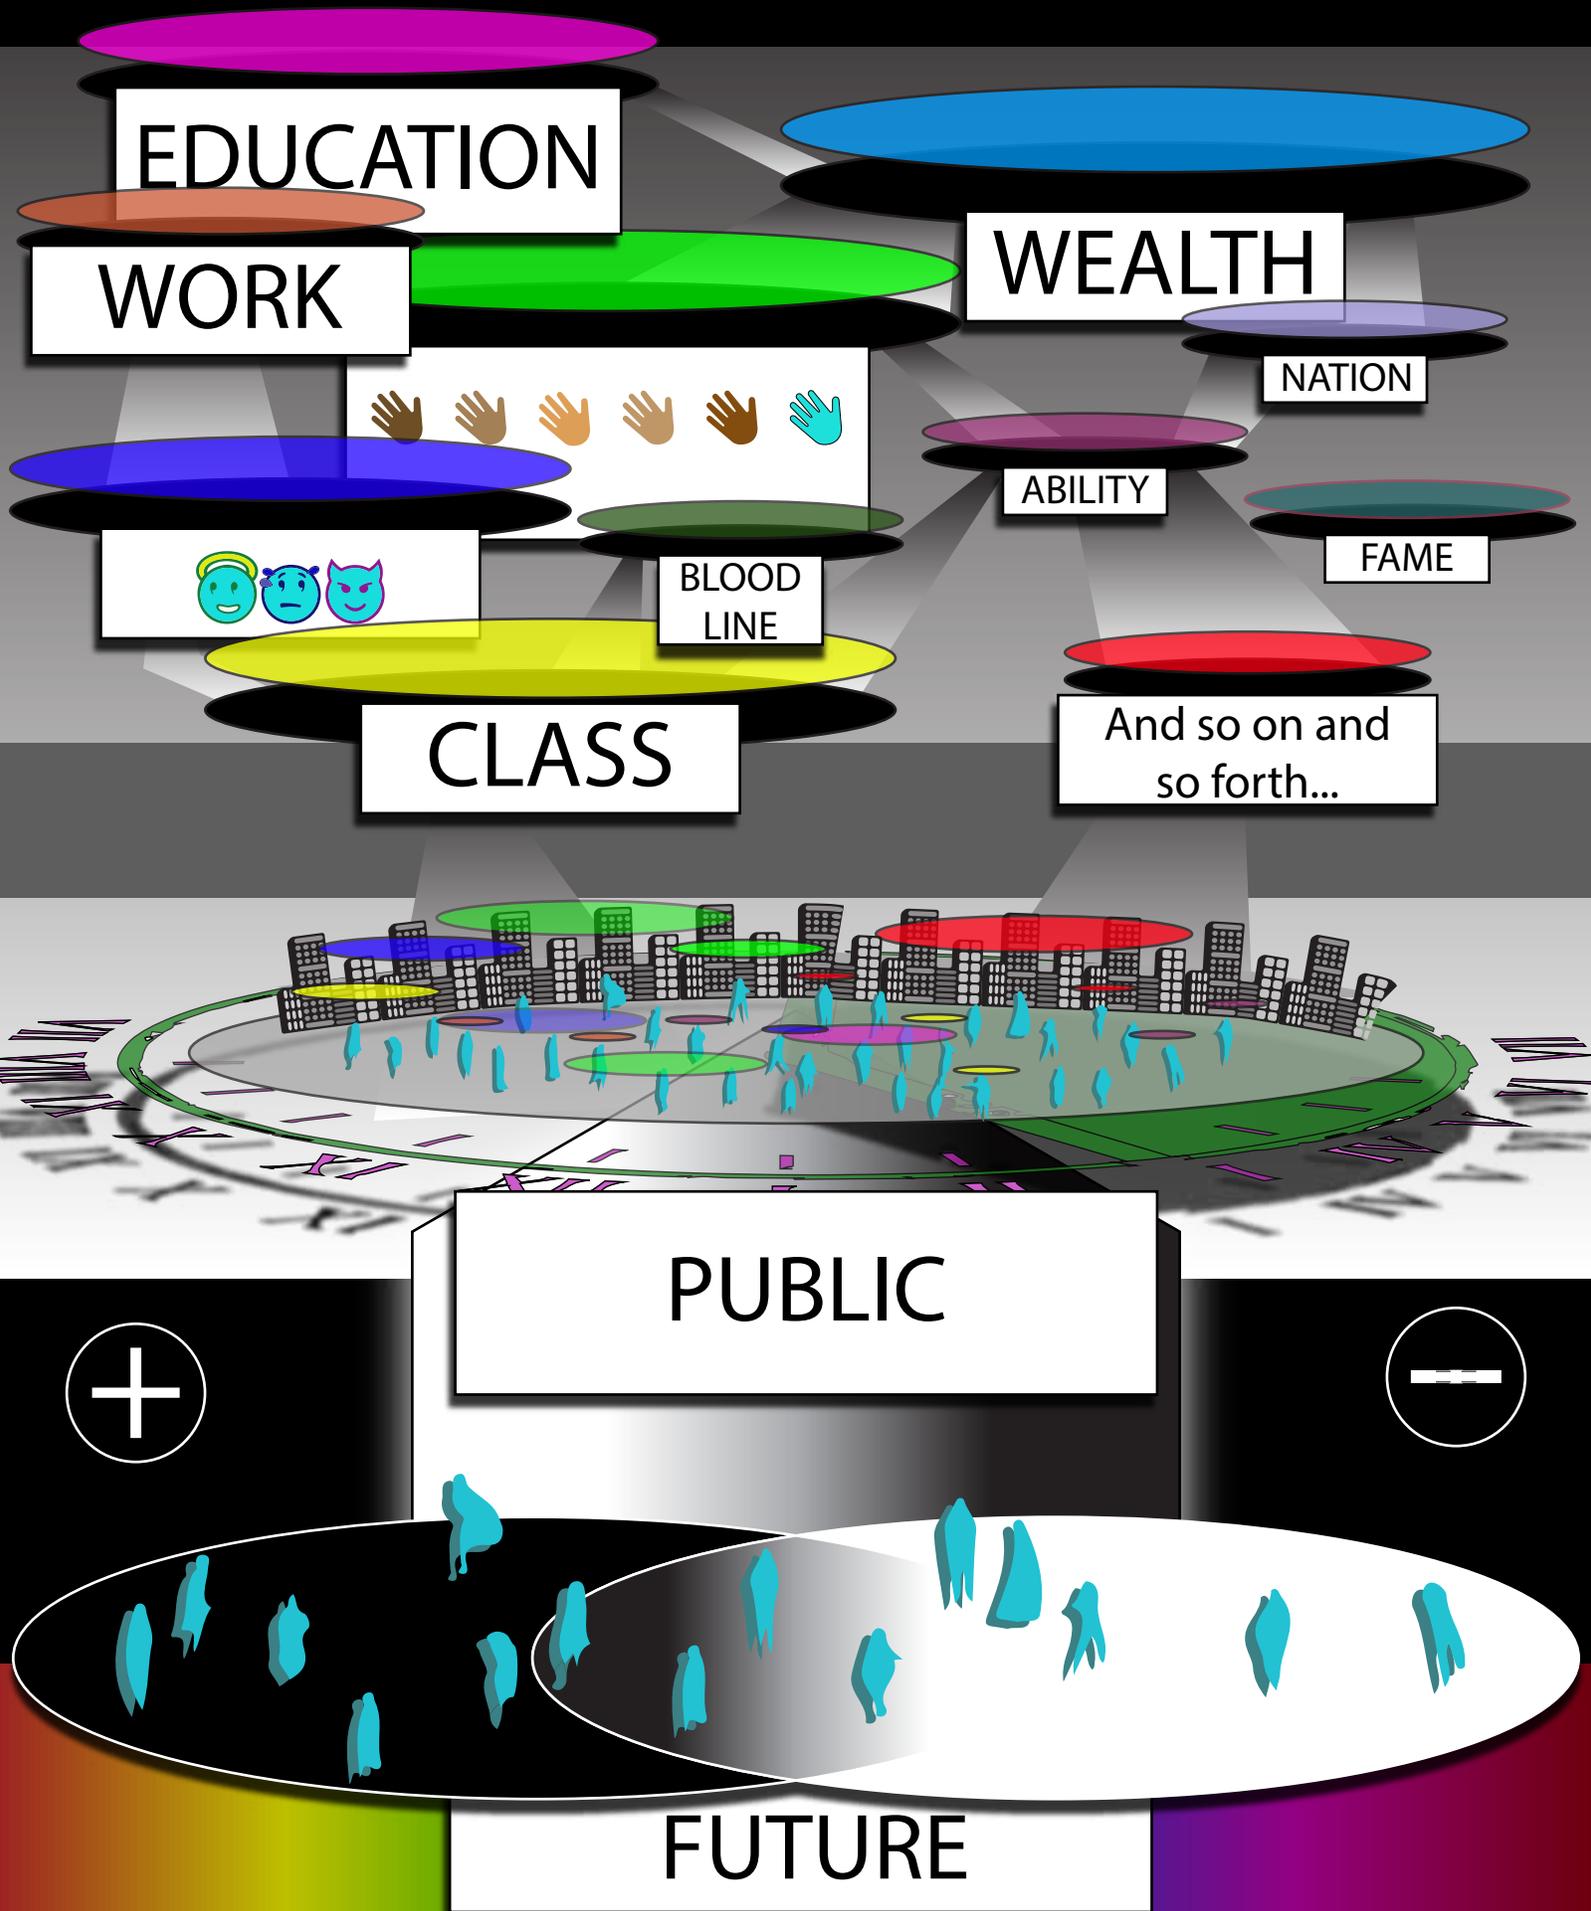

Modern day economics, is a measurement of behaviours, not a measurement of wealth.

FUTURE

THE EXPERIENCE POOL

In the past, with less life expectancy and less access to information. Entire generations could be steered through deceptions. Some individuals may have gone entire lifetimes before meeting true reflection points of their own character. That was then.

This will be the first living group of generations (known to history), to go through an Experience Age. One in which the forces of control push economics to the point in which enough surveillance and observational tools will be available for people to see through most deception. The future is transparent and many people will learn to look inward in order to function more cohesively with the outside world.

Character vs Identity:

Deception reached an all time high during the secret wars, which occurred during the period between the "official" end of the cold wars and the global pandemic. Something strong enough to create a polarization point within the wider culture of humanity.

The system, meaning the collective nervous system of the public was pushed further than past societies; and the will of the majority, removed by way of coercive force is sensing a path forward for the better.

Many who have held power through deceit and abuse are working to make what restitution they can, before their failures towards the human race are made known.

A Sense of Duty

There will be a period of acceptance or denial. The time of the transition in understanding what is really happening culturally. Is individual.

A translation of frequencies is our best description thus far for what will occur in many individuals.

Once it has occurred, the necessity of protecting the vulnerable. Especially those of the alpha generation from those of your own generations and older, in order to curb the tide of abuse which have continued since wars of humanity were exacerbated in the nuclear age.

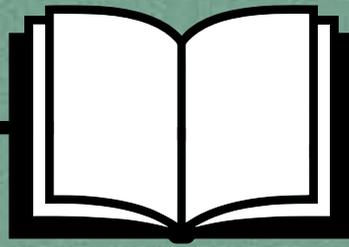

The time of choice is upon us.

The Mirror

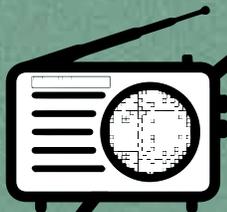

It is unavoidable at this point. Starting with the most high and it has already begun. Many people who are living off of shady accolades or the false hopes of others, will through there own mechanisms be forced to come to grips with fair consequence as the science of mediation is perfected moving forward.

This will be facilitated through technology; and yet for the psychological benefit of humanity. Collectively figuring out what is next for the species. Mental and emotional bridges will be required if healing is going to happen for individuals, families, corporations or other groups.

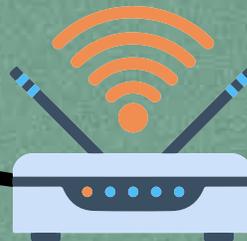

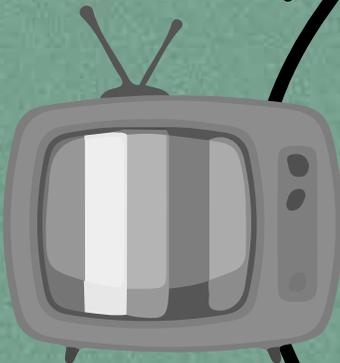

Success and sustainability of our own backyards is the goal, before deciding to seed another ecosystem on some other land.
